

Dedicated to the LGBTQ community

Summit Oaks Hospital recognizes that members of the LGBTQ+ community have unique healthcare needs. We are committed to providing caring, supportive services designed to help our patients make a healthy recovery.

We Provide

- Placement in gender-specific areas based upon patients' identity and preference
- Clinicians trained in providing services to LGBTQ patients
- A Patient Advocate with training in LGBTQ healthcare

Discharge Planning

Our multidisciplinary team is trained and prepared to provide quality care using best practices. Our LGBTQ patients' needs are discussed throughout treatment planning where we find resolutions to any concerns, develop an individualized treatment plan, and locate and identify aftercare providers and other community resources that would best suit their needs.

Your choice for inpatient and outpatient behavioral healthcare with inclusive, accepting, and supportive care for our LGBTQ community.
